Sir,

I have the honour to state that H A Venkatachar, who held the appointment of Mohatarfa Mutsaddi of the Shimoga Municipality from 12th February 1904 to 7th September 1907, was removed from service with effect from February 1908, as he was found responsible for furnishing incorrect information regarding the Mohatarfa Tax paid by one Gajanur Narasinga Rao, which qualified the latter to be returned as member of the Dasara Representative Assembly It was however, considered that the order of removal did not preclude him from re-employment

2 Venkatachar subsequently held the post of a temporary Sarganeer clerk from 25th June 1908 to the end of April 1909 and from May 1909 to end of June 1910, as temporary clerk in the Municipal Special Deputy Amildar's Office As he was found to work satisfactorily, he was entertained as Mohatarfa Mutsaddy from 1st July 1910

Endorsement on Mohatarfa Mutnadi Venkatachar's application for promotion.-

No.637 dated 17-2-1914.

Submitted to the Deputy Commissioner. The applicant is an intelligent and hardworking official. His case may kindly be given the consideration it deserves.

Shimoga Vice-President's Memo No.49 dated 22nd January 1914 submitted to the President.

Venkatachar has been Mohatarfa Mutsaddi for about 9 years and he has acted as Municipal Clerk on 2 or 3 occasions. He is a good hand in Canarese and he knows a little English also and he has got experience of the work of the Municipal office. If an altogether new man is appointed Municipal Clerk, I am afraid the work would again come to chaotic condition. I have therefore preferred him and the work is now going on smoothly.
